Allies Fall Back Upon Fortifications Surrounding Paris and Progress of Invaders is Marked by Terrific Cannonading.

FRENCH PLAN TO SURRENDER PARIS BEFORE PERMITTING DESTRUCTION

Nearly 100,000 Russians Said to Have Landed on French Soil to Aid French and British Allies—Colossal Struggle Rages Without Moment's Interruption and Loss of Life is Staggering.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, SEPT. 4.—LATE NEWS DISPATCHES FROM DIEPPE DESCRIBE THE GERMAN RIGHT AS AT THE REAR OF THE RETREATING FRENCH THROUGH CREIL AND SENLIS, TOWNS DISTANT 24 AND 20 MILES RESPECTIVELY FROM THE BOUNDARIES OF PARIS PROPER. THE FORTIFICATIONS OF THE FRENCH CAPITAL EXTEND, ROUGHLY, 10 MILES BEYOND THE CITY LIMITS. THE ALLIED ARMIES PROBABLY NOW OCCUPY A LINE OF SIEGE BOTH TO THE EAST AND WEST OF PARIS. RECRUITING HAS IMPROVED IN ENGLAND AND THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES ARE NOW PREPARED TO FORM SOME TEN OR TWELVE NEW DIVISIONS.

LONDON, SEPT. 4.—IN A DISPATCH FROM ROUEN, FRANCE, A CORRESPONDENT OF THE CHRONICLE SAYS HE HAS LEARNED THAT THE FRENCH AUTHORITIES IN PARIS ARE CONSIDERING THE SURRENDER OF THE CITY TO THE GERMANS IN ORDER TO AVOID THE DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY FROM ARTILLERY FIRE.

THIS WILL ONLY BE DONE, THE CORRESPONDENT DECLARES, IN CASE THE OUTSIDE LINES OF THE DEFENSES OF PARIS ARE PASSED BY THE INVADERS.

BRITISH, FRENCH AND BELGIAN WOUNDED ARE BEING TRANSFERRED FROM PARIS TO OTHER CITIES AND THE GREAT EXODUS OF THE POPULACE OF THE FRENCH CAPITAL TO THE SOUTH CONTINUES.

London, Sept. 4.—The armies of Germany, Russia, Austria, France and Great Britain are still at death grips in four colossal battles. A few brief bulletins convey all the important facts that the people of Europe know about the war, yet the interest in their armies so overshadow all individual affairs that they wait with patience for information.

English newspapers, in the lack of definite news of battle, are filled with stories about wounded soldiers who saw some scrap of the great conflict, and with reports from correspondents far behind the firing lines.

The election of Pope Benedict XV at Rome obtains a few lines on the inner page of the London papers while an interview from Paris of a wounded British officer, who said the Allies during the past 24 hours had pressed back the German attack, is read with eager interest. The past 24 hours has yielded no definite news of the battle in the north of France. The public is prepared to learn that the German advance continues to the outer lines of the defense of Paris. There it is expected that the Allied army will make a stand on the line from Berdun on the east to the sea and attempt with all their might to stave the German avalanche.

80,000 RUSSIANS LAND IN FRANCE

London, Sept. 4.—Reports reached London from Liverpool that England has placed more than 80,000 Russian troops in France by means of transports sent north of the Scandinavian peninsula to Finland, where the Cossacks embarked and were safely landed at French ports. Because of the mines in the Baltic and North Seas and the presence of the German fleet it has been regarded as impossible for Russia to reach France except by marching through Germany.

A constant string of empty ships has been moving south

BALTIMORE READY FOR CENTENNIAL OF WRITING OF "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER"

National interest centers in the great centennial anniversary of the writing of America's most popular anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," to be held at Baltimore, Sept. 6-13, inclusive. It is expected thousands will visit that city for the event. President Wilson was invited, but may not attend because he is in mourning for his wife. The original American flag that flew over Fort M'Henry in 1814 during the war with England and that inspired Francis Scott Key to write the verses for the song will be brought from the National museum at Washington and displayed.

from Liverpool ever since the declaration of war, but there had been no observation of ships northward-bound and the rumor that England has helped Russians into France has given rise to much speculation as to where the ships sailed from. However, the secrecy which surrounded the movement of the expeditionary army was so complete that the public is willing to believe the English government has it within its power to conceal any movement.

STEADY ADVANCE CONTINUES

London, Sept. 4.—The correspondent of the Times at Dieppe, under Thursday's date, indicates that the Germans are less than 25 miles from Paris.

He says: "All day yesterday the head of the wedge which now forms the German right was forcing its way to Paris battling the rear of the retreating French through Creil, and Senlis. The cannonading broke windows in Chantilly, which is only 17 miles north of Paris. The Germans are also near Soissons.

Another dispatch to the Times from Beauvais, 40 miles northwest of Paris says the Germans entered Clermont, 35 miles from Paris, at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning.

GERMANS CHECKED AT VERDUN

Paris, Sept. 4.—An official statement given out today says: "The Germans have been checked at Verdun. The French are successful in Lorraine and the Vosges. The situation has not changed."

GHENT CITIZENS IN PANIC

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Ghent says that the people there are in a panic over the expected advance of the Germans on their city which is indicated by the persistent presence of aeroplanes and scouts in its vicinity. It is believed that the Germans are now at Termonde, sixteen miles east of Ghent.

FOOD PRICE BOOSTERS INDICTED

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Thirty-two indictments were returned here today by a Federal Grand Jury after an investigation to determine whether food prices have been artificially increased here on pretext of having been caused by the European war.

Bench warrants were issued for all the indicted men, who are local commission merchants or produce dealers, and bail was arranged for their appearance in court. No nationally known concerns were indicted. The indictment charges that they have been fixing prices every day on food-stuffs by "ballots," or "suggestions," or verbal agreements and that the fixed prices have been circulated by printed circulars. The indictments are under the Sherman law and conviction carries a fine of $5000, or one year's imprisonment, or both.

WHEAT $1.29

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Yesterday's record price for wheat, $1.25 1/4, was displaced in the opening trades today when the May option sold for $1.26 3/4. Before the session was an hour old the market had scored a sensational jump of more than 4 cents a bushel compared with last night. The bulge carried May wheat up to $1.29 1/2.

WILSON ASKS TAX TO RAISE $100,000,000

President Addresses Congress and Points Out Why Special Tax is Necessary to Insure Continued Prosperity — Leaves Methods to Congress.

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 4.—Following is the full text of President Wilson's address to Congress, assembled in joint session, on the need of emergency revenue legislation delivered this afternoon:

"Gentlemen of the Congress: 'I come to you today to discharge a duty which I wish with all my heart I might have been spared; but it is a duty which is very clear, and, therefore, I perform it without hesitation or apology. I come to ask very earnestly that additional revenue be provided for the government.

"During the month of August there was, as compared with the corresponding month of last year, a falling off of $10,629,538 in the revenues collected from customs. A continuation of this decrease in the same proportion throughout the current fiscal year would probably mean a loss of customs revenues of from sixty to one hundred million. I need not tell you to what this falling-off is due. It is due, in chief part, not to the reductions recently made in the customs duties, but to the great decrease in importations; and that is due to the extraordinary extent of the industrial area affected by the present war in Europe. Conditions have arisen which no man foresaw; they affect the whole world of commerce

GRUESOME FIND LEADS TO ARRESTS

By Associated Press.

Mexico City, Sept. 4.—The Constitutional military authorities today discovered a human heart preserved in alcohol in a glass jar in a private residence here. Several arrests were made in connection with this discovery but the authorities refused to divulge the names of those taken into custody.

Blood stained clothing, which belonged to President Madero and Vice President Suarez, who were killed in Mexico City in February of 1913, also have been found, together with a watch which belonged to the President.

and economic production; and they must be faced and dealt with.

"It would be very unwise to postpone dealing with them. Delay in such a matter and in the particular circumstances in which we now find ourselves as a nation might involve consequences of the most embarrassing and deplorable sort, for which I, for one, would not care to be responsible. It would be very dangerous in the present circumstances to create a moment's doubt as to the strength and sufficiency of the treasury of United States, its ability to assist, to steady and sustain the financial operations of the country's business. If the treasury is known, or even thought to be weak, where will be our peace of mind? The whole industrial activity of the country would be chilled and demoralized. Just now the peculiarly difficult financial problems of the moment are being successfully dealt with, with great self-possession and good sense and very sound judgment; but they are only in process of being worked out. If the process of solution is to be completed, no one must be given reason to doubt the solidity and adequacy of the treasury of the government which stands behind the whole method by which our difficulties are being met

PARIS PREPARING FOR SIEGE

Three Million Men Under Arms to Defend the French Capital and New
Intrenchments Are Being Constructed
Under Direction of the Military
Governor of the City—German
Position Admitted One of Undoubted
Strength.

London, Sept. 4.—La Fere, one of France's fortifications northeast of Paris, has been captured by the Germans after a bloody combat. The allies have been compelled to abandon
all the valley of the Somme.

Belgian troops began a spirited attack on the Germans in a new battle
near Malines in an effort to sever
the German lines of communication.
The attack is believed to have been made by a large force sent from Antwerp.

Amiens, capital of the French department of the Somme, a city of 90,000, was surrendered to the Germans without defense. The success of the Germans in a battle at Moreuil
made the capture of Amiens a certainty.

Boulogne has been abandoned, thus
becoming an open city for occupancy
by the German forces whenever they see fit. Boulogne is 35 miles across the straits of Dover from Folkestone,

England.

All of northern France, from Dieppe
on the English channel to Montmedy
on the Belgian, is said to be under control of the Germans.

New intrenchments outside the city of Paris were begun on a vast scale. Several hundred thousand men are engaged in the work, which
will require several days for completion. French army engineers are directing the construction of the new defenses.

Martial law was proclaimed in Paris and the city was declared to be in a state of siege.

The German position, with the turning movement now on Montmedy in the department of the Meuse for a
pivot, and controlling the rich country of Belgium and northern France,
has undoubted strength.

What disposition has been made of the eighteen army corps of French reservists, which have not been sent to fill in the holes in the allies' left wing, may have an important effect
on the immediate fortunes of the conflict. It is believed these troops are either held for flank movements or
already are engaged in an unreported
attack upon which the allies are building hopes of breaking the back of the German line of invasion.

Three million Frenchmen, it is
said, are now under arms to defend Paris, and new intrenchments are being constructed under the direction
of General Gallieni, the military governor of Paris. In his proclamation
he says that the members of the government have left Paris in order to give a new impetus to the defense of the nation. Only two gates in Paris are open, Porte Maillot, on the northwest, and Porte de Bercy on the southwest. They are both strongly guarded and defended by barricades.

One of the German aeroplanes of
the Taub type which recently dropped bombs on the city of Paris has been brought down. The two German aviators on board were killed.

GERMANY STILL COAXING ITALY

Rome, Sept. 4.—Germany is continuing her persuasions to endeavor
to induce Italy to support her two companions, Germany and Austria, in the triple alliance. It can not be learned whether or not these efforts have met with any success. There are reports, however, that Italy is concentrating troops on the Austrian frontier, but this report can not be confirmed. Two prominent German Socialists, including Deputy Suede-kum, came here to persuade their Italian comrades that they were right
in supporting Germany in the present
war.

WILSON BEFORE CONGRESS

Asks For War Tax Measure That
Will Raise $100,000,000.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Congress met
in joint session this afternoon to hear
President Wilson read his message
asking for a war tax revenue measure that will provide $100,000,000. The president confined his message to the presentation of the necessity for emergency revenues, without suggesting the means for raising the funds.

Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee, will frame the revenue bill. Mr.
Underwood said his plan was calculated to produce $100,000,000 by an
"internal revenue tax on a very few commodities." Details of the scheme
have been carefully guarded, as congressmen have been flooded with protests for many days. Administration leaders desire to have the method of
taxation clearly determined before it is made known, in order to avoid interference from various interests to
be affected.

It may be stated upon authority
that unless there is a change of program the revenue bill will deal only
with internal taxation. There will be no increase in the rates of the income tax. Nor will a duty be levied
on tea or coffee or any other imports.
It is the opinion of the leaders that
stamp taxes, collected by the commissioner of internal revenue will be more responsive to the needs of the government.

SULTAN BARS U.S. CRUISER

American Cruiser With Relief Fund
Can Not Pass Through.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send
the cruiser North Carolina through the Dardanelles to Constantinople to deliver $150,000 in gold deposited here for the relief of Americans in the Ottoman empire.

The grand vizier has informed the American government that the waters
of the Dardanelles had been mined
and that it would be unsafe for a vessel as large as the North Carolina
to go through the straits. He declared also that it might establish a precedent for the passage of other foreign warships and suggested that the American naval yacht Scorpion,
on duty constantly in Turkish waters
along with other light vessels that serve foreign missions, be sent to sea
to meet the North Carolina.

This was the substance of a long
cablegram received at the White House and state department from Ambassador Morgenthau, the first
message from him in several days.
He made no mention of any declarations of war, but referred to the diplomatic situation as highly critical.

The ambassador reported that all Americans who wished to leave had
done so, and he thought funds aboard
the North Carolina would be sufficient
for immediate needs.

In view of the delicate situation the American ambassador suggested that the plan of sending the Scorpion to meet the North Carolina outside the straits be adopted.

Chefoo, China, Sept. 4.—Japan land-

Of these forces 500 men are marines,
the others being soldiers. Lung-Kow

Between 10,000 and 15,000 Japanese previously. The Japanese control the telegraph lines out of Lung-Kow. The Japanese are reported to have occu-

1,000 mines which had been scattered by the Germans in the waters adjoining

War In Europe Cruel And Barbarous, as Inexcusable as It Is Lamentable

THE world has never seen such a war as this, and probably it never will see another. CIVILIZATION ON THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE IS TO BE SET BACK COUNTLESS YEARS. We shall not live to see it recover to that point of civilization at which the world's progress has been broken off.

THIS IS A WAR WITHOUT REASON, AS INEXCUSABLE AS IT IS LAMENTABLE. IT IS CRUEL AND BARBAROUS, AND THERE WAS NOT THE LEAST VESTIGE OF A FOUNDATION FOR IT. IT COULD HAVE BEEN PREVENTED HAD IT BEEN DESIRABLE ON THE PART OF THOSE WHO STARTED IT TO PREVENT IT.

Twenty millions of the young men of Europe are being forced into military service without reason, into a war in which many thousands of them will be killed. Nearly every family in Europe is to lose one or more of its members, and thousands of families are to be wiped out. These twenty million young men are the best there are in Europe.

THERE HAVE BEEN TIMES WHEN WAR WAS WARRANTED, WHEN WAR WAS THE ONLY SOLUTION, BUT THIS GENERAL WAR IN EUROPE IS WITHOUT THE FAINTEST HOPE OF AN EXCUSE. THE POWERS THAT RULE HAVE BEEN PREPARING FOR WAR WITH ENORMOUS EXPENDITURES THAT HAVE GROUND DOWN THE PEOPLE WITH TAXES UNTIL THEY BLINDLY WELCOME WAR AS A MEANS TO AVOID THEIR TAX BRED POVERTY.

RED DEATH OF WAR

Tragic Fate of Maximilian at the Hands of the Mexicans.

HIS PENALTY FOR FAILURE.

The Atonement of Blood—How it Was Consummated and How the Vengeance of the Victors Was Satisfied—Coolness of the Unfortunate Prince.

No more tragic incident is recorded in history than the execution of Maximilian. Half a century ago a younger brother of the Emperor Francis Joseph was sent to rule Mexico. Together with his wife, he sat upon the frail throne, even then tottering. How he failed is another story, but when he was taken prisoner he prepared himself for death—the red death of war.

In a volume written some years ago Major John N. Edwards pictures graphically the closing hours of the tall, handsome prince who would be king as follows:

The morning broke fair and white in the sky, and at 6:30 o'clock three carriages drew up in front of the main gate of the convent of Capuchins. The bells rang in all the steeples, there were soldiers everywhere, and long lines of glittering steel that rose and fell in yet the soft, sweet hush of the morning.

In the first carriage got Maximilian and Father Soria, a priest. In the second carriage there came Miramon and his priest, in the third Mejia and his. Then the solemn cortege started. All the people were in the street. On the faces of the multitude there were evidences of genuine and unaffected sorrow. Some among the crowd lifted their hats as the victims passed along, some turned away their heads and wept, and some, even among the soldiers and amid the hostile ranks of the Liberals, fell upon their knees and wept.

The place of surrender was to be the place of execution. Northwest of the city a mile or more the Hill of the Bells (El Cerro de las Campanas) appeared itself. It was inclosed on three sides by 6,000 soldiers of all arms, leaving the rear or uncovered side resting upon a wall.

It was 7:30 o'clock when the carriages halted at the place of execution. Maximilian was the first to alight. He stepped proudly down, took a handkerchief from his pocket and his hat from his head and beckoned for one of his Mexican servants to approach. The man came.

"Take these," the emperor said. "They are all I have to give." The faithful Indian took them, kissed them, cried over them, fell upon his knees a few moments in prayer to the

Poetry For Today

OHIO.

In our Union, big and great,
There's a certain little state
Called Ohio.
Those who've lived there, love it best
And, for that part, all the rest
Love Ohio.

Just why, I cannot tell;
But, you know, we love it well,
Our Ohio.
Maybe, 'cause the sun's so bright,
Maybe 'cause all things go right
In Ohio.

If you're in another state,
(That isn't half, you know, as great)
As Ohio,
Or, no matter where you roam
It is good to get back home
To Ohio.

Don't you want to skip and hop,
When the train comes to a stop
In Ohio?
When you're home, you want to shout
—Bring the neighbors running out—
It's Ohio.

In this state of golden grain,
Days of sunshine, days of rain,
In Ohio.
Here, the flowers bloom the fairest
And their fragrance is the rarest
In Ohio.

But no matter where we go,
We are always sure to know,
That Ohio,
Always has and always will
Head the list, and, it's still,
Our Ohio.

When the Long "S" Was Abolished.
In the latter part of February, 1800, a London publisher instituted a trifling though welcome improvement in printing. His name was Bell, later the founder of the well known Weekly Messenger, and at the date mentioned he caused to be submitted the short for the long "s" in the setting of certain works he produced. His example was generally followed a year or two later. —St. James' Gazette.

TO CROWN NEW POPE SUNDAY

New Pope Refers to the Great Conflict in Europe.

Rome, Sept. 4.—Cardinal Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy, who was elected to the papacy and who has assumed the name of Pope Benedict XV., is described as a man of great spiritual vigor and one of the most highly esteemed in the hierarchy. He is about average height, of stocky build and of rather quiet and reserved manner. He was born at Pegli, in the diocese of Genoa, Nov. 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest Dec. 21, 1878. He served in several important offices of the church. He was appointed assistant secretary of state in 1901 and in May of the present year was created a cardinal. The choice fell on a cardinal of Italian birth, as was expected from tradition, and also from the disturbed conditions in Europe, which mitigated against the selection of a pope outside of the Italian hierarchy.

The coronation of the new pope will take place Sept. 6.
Referring to the European war the new pontiff said the great conflict had armed faithful against faithful, priest against priest, while the bishops of each country offered prayers for the success of the army of his own nation. But victory for one side meant slaughter to the other, destruction of children equally dear to the heart of the pontiff.
The conclave of the sacred college had been in session since the evening of Aug. 31. When the name of Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa was cried out as having received the prescribed two-thirds vote, there was much excitement among the members of the conclave.

UNSELFISH SAVAGES.

Generosity of the Semisavage Eskimos of Arctic Siberia.
Probably no more clannish—and unselfish—people exist than the natives of the arctic coast of Siberia, the lowest type of semisavage Eskimos. They are ever thinking of one another's welfare, and if one comes into possession of anything of value he never thinks of keeping it for himself, but calls the other members of the tribe to share with him. If a whale is taken or a polar bear, caribou or walrus is killed the meat is divided among all the igloos. Even during the hard winter, when there is a shortage of food, if a seal is brought in by some fortunate hunter the meat and blubber are equally distributed.
Four men from East Cape, the Siberian side of Bering strait, were taken aboard the whale ship Narwhal to make up the boat crews for whaling in the Arctic. All through the summer season they remained aboard the vessel, doing their share of the perilous and wearisome work. When the vessel returned to East Cape on its way south the captain made a pile of flour, sugar, hard bread, calico, tobacco, cartridges, needles and thread, tea, matches—everything dear to the Eskimo heart. It was their wages, and the Eskimos were proud of their wealth.
The walrus hide canoes came alongside, and the four men were taken ashore with their riches. At the water's edge every article was delivered to waiting hands, and when the men who had worked all summer for these necessities and luxuries started for their igloos they carried all they kept for themselves in their hands. They were almost as poor as they were when they started on the cruise, but the village was temporarily happy, and so were they.—Exchange.

Stage Bells.
"Parsifal" is interesting, quite apart from its artistic merit, as having had a musical instrument invented for it and named after it. The reproduction of the sound of church bells in opera was long a difficulty. Real bells simply drowned the orchestra, and all substitutes were tried in vain until Dr. Motl designed the Parsifal bell instrument, somewhat on the principle of the grand piano. Each of its five notes has six strings, which are struck by large hammers covered with cotton wool. And the result is as near to the solemn sound of church bells as the theater has been able to get.—Boston Herald.

FIRE DAMAGES CREAMERY TWO MEN BADLY INJURED

Two Volunteer Firemen, Jas. Devalt and Seaton Bethard, Nearly Meet Death While Fighting Fire Last Night.

BOTH MEN UNCONSCIOUS FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS

Nearly One-Third of Roof Is Burned From Creamery, but Plant Resumes Operation Friday Morning—Loss of More Than $250 Is Fully Covered by Insurance—Fire of Unknown Origin.

During a fire which damaged the Fayette County Creamery Plant, Thursday evening between seven and eight o'clock, two volunteer firemen, James Devalt and Seaton Bethard, were seriously injured when a hose became unmanageable and knocked them from the roof of the creamery building.

The blaze started in the southeast corner of the building, over the coal room, and its origin is a mystery, as the flue is fire-tight, and no sparks could enter the attic where the flames originated.

When the fire department was notified the flames had broken through the roof and were spreading rapidly. The department made a splendid run to the scene and within a very short time had a stream playing on the blaze, but could not get at the source of the fire until two or three holes had been chopped into the building. Then the flames were quickly smothered by the big streams of water.

Devalt and Bethard had climbed to the roof of the building and were playing a stream of water on the blaze when the accident occurred which hurled them from the roof to the ground, 12 or 15 feet below.

Both men were seriously injured by the drop, and both were rendered unconscious and did not fully recover consciousness until nearly two hours later. The men were hastily removed to the Fayette hospital and physicians worked over them, dressing their wounds and administering restoratives until each became fully conscious. Devalt, besides numerous bruises, suffered an ugly gash in the back of his head, and was soon covered with blood. Bethard also suffered many bruises and sprains.

Both men spent a very restless night, but Friday morning were on the road to recovery, although it will probably be several days before they are able to return to their work.

While the men were being removed to the hospital the fire-fighters were busy extinguishing the fire.

Nearly one-third of the roof was destroyed, and other damage resulted which will require an expenditure of $250 or more to replace. The loss is covered by insurance.

The damage to machinery and equipment was very light, and early Friday morning the plant was running as usual, and will continue to do so.

The Creamery during the month of August, churned 23,000 pounds of butter; 20,000 pounds during the month of July and 23,000 pounds during June. The plant has proven a success from the beginning, and much credit is due to Mr. H. L. Spray who has charge of the plant.

URGES REPAIR OF BAD ROAD

Washington-Leesburg Pike In Bad Condition Although One of the Most Used Roads Leading From The City—Leesburg Citizens Take A Whack at Road Builders.

Regarding the condition of the much-used Washington and Leesburg pike, which has long been in anything but perfect condition between the two towns, the Citizen, of Leesburg says, in part:

"It is conceded on all sides, of whomsoever you ask, who has traveled them, that the roads leading out of Leesburg to Washington C. H., either by way of Buena Vista or by way of the Leesburg-Washington pike are beyond all doubt the worst pikes in either Highland or Fayette.

"It is conceded on all sides that these are among the most traveled, and therefore most important pikes in either county; in fact so exceedingly important and at the same time so exceedingly bad, (and therefore expensive to travel over,) that considerable portion on the Washington C. H. end is now being paved.

"It is conceded on all sides that the present condition of these pikes is inexcusable, and reflects on the business sagacity of all parties concerned—the people who travel them for not demanding more; the farmers along the line for not doing more; the Commissioners of both counties for not granting more.

"And it must be conceded that while primarily to blame, the Commissioners cannot do without the wherewith, without money provisions being made by others than themselves for the repair of these roads. And the money is not in sight; the

pikes ARE in sight, in all their UN-SIGHTLINESS.

"The problem is, therefore, what to do, how to do it, and by whom."

AND NOW THE WAR STOPS EXTENSION

The proposed extension of the local traction line to Washington C. H., where it was to form a loop with a line from Xenia has been called off. The New York capitalists, who were to finance the project, were favorably impressed with the project, but when the European war broke out, they saw a better opportunity in financing war loans. It is thought that the project may be taken up again in the future and pushed to a successful completion.—South Charleston.

and handled.

"The treasury itself could get along for a considerable period, no doubt, without immediate resort to new sources of taxation. But at what cost to the business of the community? Approximately $75,000,000, a large part of the present treasury balance, is now on deposit with national banks distributed throughout the country. It is deposited, of course, on call. I need not point out to you what the probable consequences of inconvenience and distress and confusion would be if the diminishing income of the treasury should make it necessary rapidly to withdraw these deposits. And yet without additional revenue that plainly might become necessary, and the time when it became necessary could not be controlled or determined by the convenience of the business of the country. It would have to be determined by the operations and necessities of the treasury itself. Such risks are not necessary and ought not to be run. We can not too scrupulously or carefully safeguard a financial situation which is at best, while war continues in Europe, difficult and abnormal. Hesitation and delay are the worst forms of bad policy under such conditions.

"And we ought not to borrow. We ought to resort to taxation, however, we may regret the necessity of putting additional temporary burdens on our people. To sell bonds would be to make a most untimely and unjustifiable demand on the money market; untimely, because this is manifestly not the time to withdraw working capital from other uses to pay the government's bills; unjustifiable, because unnecessary. The country is able to pay any just and reasonable taxes without distress. And to every other form of borrowing, whether for long periods or for short, there is the same objection. These are not the circumstances, this is at this particular moment and in this particular exigency not the market, to borrow large sums of money. What we are seeking is to ease and assist every financial transaction, not to add a single additional embarrassment to the situation. The people of this country are both intelligent and profoundly patriotic. They are ready to meet the present conditions in the right way and to support the government with generous self-denial. They know and understand, and will be intolerant only of those who dodge responsibility or are not frank with them.

"The occasion is not of our own making. We had no part in making it. But it is here. It affects us as directly and palpably almost as if we were participants in the circumstances which gave rise to it. We must accept the inevitable with calm judgment and unruffled spirits, like men accustomed to deal with the unexpected, habituated to take care of themselves, masters of their own affairs and their own fortunes. We shall pay the bill, though we did not deliberately incur it.

"In order to meet every demand upon the treasury without delay or peradventure and in order to keep the treasury strong, unquestionably strong, and strong throughout the present anxieties, I respectfully urge that an additional revenue of $100,000,000 be raised through internal taxes devised in your wisdom to meet the emergency. The only suggestion I take the liberty of making is that such sources of revenue be chosen as will begin to yield at once and yield with a certain and constant flow.

"I can not close without expressing the confidence with which I approach a Congress, with regard to this or any other matter, which has shown so untiring a devotion to public duty, which has responded to the needs of the nation throughout a long season despite inevitable fatigue and personal sacrifice, and so large a proportion of whose members have devoted their whole time and energy to the business of the country."

FLATTERING CONDITION OF Y. M. C. A. SHOWN BY REPORT

Neat Sum Above Expenses for Past Month Placed in the Treasury and Trustees Are Greatly Pleased With the Showing—Big Institution Moving Along in Pleasing Manner.

The meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening contained several interesting features, the principal one, standing out before all others, being the establishment of proof of the institution's ability to continue its work as a self-supporting organization.

From the comparative report of General Secretary Walter Patton, the more particular item of note is the fact that the Y. M. C. A. in the past two months has been able to put away, after meeting all current liabilities, over $200. Or, to be exact, $200.67.

When the report of the month of July showed the possession of a pretty good balance the directors began to wax hopeful. Last month's repetition would tend to confirm these hopes of future success and prosperity and it is with enthusiastic expectancy that the organization enters upon its new epoch.

Another item of interest presented to the board was the report of the summer school work which shows that the 31 students, 18 boys and 13 girls, received passing grades to the number of 47 and the Y. M. C. A., as a consequence of the work, netted $63.55, clear of all attendant expense.

In connection with the receipt of this report arose a discussion of the educational work of the institution planned for the coming winter. It was decided that the courses include bookkeeping, stenography and mechanical drawing, and possibly agricultural training and show card writing. The board of directors, however, will have nothing to do with the conduct of this work which will be turned over, wholly, to the educational committee and Secretary Patton.

Another report of interest was made by Mr. Patton, concerning the dormitory. It shows that during the month past 23 regular tenants have occupied rooms in the building besides 30 transients.

are invited to participate in the service by giving: 1. Self. 2. Heart. 3. Money, for local work and for missions. 4. Prayer. 5. Good cheer.

In the evening the pastor will resume the series of sermons on "What Manner of Man Is This?"

STATE CHAMP. WILL PLAY TWO GAMES HERE

Fast Logan Nine Will Do Battle with Athletics Sunday and Monday—Have Lost One Game Out of Nineteen This Season and That in a Championship Series of Four Games with New Straitsville—Reno Pitchers Sunday's Game—Athletics Will Go Barnstorming.

An exhibition of fast baseball is undoubtedly in store for the local fans Sunday and Monday, when the Athletics cross bats with the swift Logan nine. This aggregation terms itself the champion semi-pro team of Ohio having taken 18 out of 19 games played, losing one game in a series of four with New Straitsville. The Logan team includes several reputable old leaguers and the Athletics will be forced to their best.

The local line-up will probably be the same as usual with one exception. Manager Noon has secured Russ Taylor, a fast outfielder of Petersburg, to cover the left garden. Taylor is a southpaw and has a good batting record. Reno will pitch Sunday's game and Linson and Cotterill on Monday.

After Monday it is probable that the Athletics will play most of the remaining games of the season away from home, and this may be the fans' last chance to see a first-class game of ball on the local diamond this year.

The Loganites will arrive by automobile and will put up at the Cherry.

AUSTRIANS LOST MANY THOUSANDS

Overwhelmingly Defeated By Russians Near Lemberg.

CONFLICT RAGED SEVEN DAYS

Force of 800,000 Russians Attacked and Vanquished 600,000 Austrians Defending the City of Lemberg—Thousands of Prisoners Taken, Besides a Great Number of Guns and Military Stores—Austrians Retreat.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The general staff officially reported that Austria lost 100,000 men killed, wounded or captured in the battle for the defense of Lemberg, in which the Austrians were overwhelmingly defeated by the Russians. The conflict lasted seven days, with 800,000 Russians attacking 600,000 Austrians.

The forts of Lemberg have fallen. The Austrians were completely routed and are fleeing northward, leaving a great number of guns and large quantities of military stores, etc., behind them. Thousands of prisoners were taken. Other Austrian armies have been engaged in northern Galicia, near Lublin.

Duke Nicholas, generalissimo of the Russian forces in the field, telegraphed the czar as follows: "I am happy to gladden your majesty with news of the victory won by the army of General Ruzsky. After seven days of uninterrupted fighting the Austrians are retreating in complete disorder, in some places running away and abandoning their guns, rifles, artillery packs and baggage trains."

Prior to this battle, General Ruzsky's army captured in the course of the seven days, twenty-four guns, a multitude of firearms and a great number of German machine guns. The operations extended over the enormous front of over 200 miles and certainly more than a million and probably a million and a half men were engaged. More than half of the Austrian army, which has been fighting in the southern provinces of Poland and on the left flank, was acting in close co-operation with two German army corps facing Breslau. While the Austrians were seeking to envelop the Russian forces in Poland and the extreme right was trying to get round Podolia, the main forces were directed at the heart of the Russian position in Poland.

The enveloping movement in the west failed and the Germans were withdrawn from the north to deal with the victorious Russian advance. The center at Lublin hurried itself in vain against Russia's finest battalions, whose task was to keep the enemy from passing at all costs. The Austrians' extreme right sustained enormous losses, but the most terrible blow was dealt them by the army of General Ruzsky, at whom the Austrians hurled four army corps.

CROWDS CHEER

Bordeaux, France, Sept. 4.—President Poincaré and the ministers of the cabinet were greeted by cheering crowds on their arrival here. Special trains arrived later with members of the senate and chamber of deputies.

The Belgian and Serbian ministers accompanied President Poincaré, as representing powers warring with Germany. Ambassador Herrick's decision to remain in Paris has given great pleasure to the French government. The Swiss ambassador remains also.

TORTURE FOR CONVICTS.

The Cruel Methods in Use in Portugal's Mozambique Colony.

Mozambique being one of the principal convict settlements of the Portuguese government, many poor creatures make desperate dashes for liberty only to be devoured by the sharks before the eyes of their guards. It was no uncommon event to hear the fortress gun boom forth, announcing that another poor soul was running this ghastly gantlet of the sharks sooner than exist like a half starved dog in deplorable surroundings.

There being no capital punishment under Portuguese law, many of the convicts were of course of the most desperate type—notorious murderers, and so on. Some of them, after a certain time and as a reward for good conduct were allowed to work on parole, leaving the fortress in the morning and returning at night, plying their various trades to their own advantage. Others of a more dangerous character might be seen working in chains on the road, guarded by slovenly half caste sepoys.

Outside the dungeon cells were whipping posts, over which poor creatures had to kneel, their arms and legs being bound to iron rings, while lashes were administered with a chicotte, a strip of hippo hide. Palmatoria was another torture used. Although illegal to Portuguese law, it is nevertheless still widely used, causing excruciating pain. The implement

The person to be punished extends the palms of his hands, and sharp, regular blows are administered, which at each stroke suck up the flesh. The bravest can rarely stand more than thirty blows, for the tortured hands swell to double their natural size. The sentence is often several hundred blows, the punishment continuing on succeeding days until "justice" is satisfied.—Sibyl Belcher in Wide World Magazine.

ON SUBJECT OF RATE INCREASE

Railroad Heads Will Confer With President Wilson.

TO AIR CARRIERS' CONDITION

Increase of Rates Sought as a Means of Meeting the Heavy Depletion of Revenues Resulting from the Falling Off of Import and Export Traffic Due to the Great European War.

Washington, Sept. 4.—President Wilson will have an important conference next Wednesday with several of the leading railroad presidents of the country. The condition of the carriers which has been brought on by the European war is to be discussed. This conference will mark the beginning of an attempt by the railroads to obtain from the interstate commerce commission authority to increase rates as a means of meeting the heavy depletion of revenues which has resulted from falling off of import and export traffic.

The railroad presidents understand that they are expected to give the president definite information as to the extent to which the railroads' finances have been affected by the war and to discuss plans for readjusting them.

It was noted as significant that the interstate commerce commission has reassembled one month ahead of its scheduled time and that from now on the commission intends to maintain a quorum to meet any situation that may arise. It is said the committee has reassembled in anticipation of the filing of rate increase petitions by the eastern railroads. The commission was scheduled to meet on the first Monday in October, but in view of conditions brought about by the war it was decided that it ought to be in a position to act immediately on any problem that may be brought before it.

The president's action in determining to inform himself fully as to the railroad situation resulted from information which came to him that the road revenues had fallen off heavily in the month of August. The interstate commerce commission shares with the president the belief that the federal authority ought to be entirely willing to listen to the arguments of the roads that they be permitted to adapt themselves to the new transportation conditions which have arisen out of the European war.

MANY FLEE FROM PARIS

Paris, Sept. 4.—The people of Paris regard the transfer of the government to Bordeaux as the wisest measure under the circumstance as, while Paris necessarily is under military administration, it is equally necessary that the government keep in touch with the rest of the country.

The exodus from Paris continues. The desire to save the women and children from the privations and perhaps the horrors of a long siege is growing in intensity every hour. All the terminals for the west and south of France present extraordinary scenes.

In the meantime, those who have to remain in the city are laying in a supply of provisions.

Lloyds bank (English) has cleared its premises and has placed its affairs in the hands of its American colleagues, Munroe and Company. Callers at the British consulate were referred to the American consulate, which apparently has taken over the British consular business.

JESS WILLARD, GIANT WHITE HOPE, HAS AMBITION TO MEET JOHNSON

New York, Sept. 4.—Jess Willard, six feet six inches of brawn and muscle, is now under the management of Jack Curley, who announces that he represents a syndicate that will post $10,000 as a forfeit for a fight with Jack Johnson and will guarantee $30,000 to the black champion, win, draw or lose, if he will enter the ring with Willard. It is possible that Curley has formed the syndicate, but there is hardly a possibility that any money will ever be put up, for Johnson is not likely to ever figure again in a championship fight. And if Johnson did fight no one would believe the fight was on the level. His written agreement in the Moran affair, by which Moran was to receive a certain increased share of the receipts if he didn't go eight rounds, published in English and French papers, settled that. Johnson has passed his prime as a fighter. Dissipation and easy living have left him a far less effective fighting machine. His endurance has gone, and after boxing a few rounds he loses his strength and hitting power. So it is quite natural to suspect that he might frame up his bouts to make sure of winning or to receive a big piece of money to pay him for losing a valuable title. Willard would probably whip Johnson. Willard is naturally a defensive fighter like Johnson, and he wouldn't run into anything through over eagerness. When hurt he hits a terrific punch or two before his natural caution returns. He uses a fast and hard left jab, and he has great advantages in height, reach, weight and strength. Five years ago Willard would have had no chance with Johnson; today it's a different matter, as Johnson is all in.

BRITISH RAILWAY PORTERS.

And the Magic of the Sixpence or the Shilling as a Tip.

I never had much fault to find with the British porter and sixpence system for baggage. E. S. Martin writes in Scribner's. You have nothing to show for your trunk when you give it up but the British constitution, and that is not written, but you have to take things as you find them, and under the British system we usually found all the things we took, even our umbrellas.

And the British railway porter is a lovely institution. He is the real father of his country. I was in a perfect frame of mind to appreciate his fatherliness. I wanted him to do all the work, including the necessary thinking, and he did it. I loved to have him hustle in and find us proper seats in trains. In that particular of service I am seldom able to realize Jane's reasonable expectations, but the British porter did and I honored him for it with admiration and shillings.

And isn't a shilling a dear little talisman? I was so pleased with them. They do so much for you and leave you with a cheerful glow and a sense of having parted with a true friend. You can get quite a lot of them for $5, and they are the cheapest thing for the money that you can buy in England. Even their fractions are nice; very desirable and convenient; companionable while they stay with you and remunerative when they leave. I tried to keep always provided with shillings and their silver fractions, and duly also with pennies, which are issued in England in large folio editions. I can remember when our honorable little cents were of a dignified amplitude like that. Did they buy more then, do you suppose? Certainly they were of more relative importance in the scheme of things than cents are now, and I'm not sure but that it would be an operation worth trying on the high cost of living to make them big again.

BUILDING A LIGHTHOUSE.

Rearing the Bell Rock Tower Was a Perilous Piece of Work.

Right down to the time of John Smeaton, who invented the stone tower, lighthouses were built of wood. It was Smeaton's success in placing a stone edifice on the dreaded Eddystone rocks in the eighteenth century which really gave an impetus to lighthouse building, and since then the sea builder has achieved many notable conquests in all parts of the globe.
 The next erected was that built by

R. Stevenson on the Ben rock, on the famous Inch cape reef, off the coast of Scotland. The construction of this lighthouse was one long, terrible battle with the angry sea. The securing of the foundations, naturally the most hazardous part of the whole undertaking, proved exceedingly difficult.

It is recorded that the men worked with desperation. Only two could remain on the rock at a time, but they stuck there with the tenacity of leeches, the cold waters of the North sea bearing down every few minutes and sweeping entirely over them. When the first stone was at last swung into position the men, ragged, chilled and worn with the awful struggle, clung to the iron rods which they had erected upon the reef and cheered madly, like soldiers just over the ramparts of an enemy's fort.

Again and again they were absolutely driven from the rock. When the tower began to appear well above the sea terrible storms arose and swamped the works. On several occasions blocks weighing as much as two tons were ruthlessly torn out of their places and swept into the sea despite dove-tailed joints and portland cement. In the end the sea builder proved victorious, as he always does, but it cost four years' labor and the expenditure of £30,000 before the lighthouse stood complete.—Wide World Magazine.

Kick of the Mule.
 A wise man, in his own estimation, announces that a mule kicks because it doesn't know any better. This will greatly surprise many students of contemporaneous mule life. If ever there was an animal with low cunning expressed in its eye and its twitching nostril, that animal is the mule. Its ability to place a kick where it will give the greatest offense to its victim is something marvelous.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Spanish Flag.
 The red and yellow of the Spanish flag is said to be derived from this occurrence: In 1378 Charles the Bold dipped his fingers in the blood of Geoffrey, count of Barcelona, and drew them down the count's golden shield in token of his appreciation of the latter's bravery. The shield, so marked, became the arms of Barcelona, which became part of Aragon, and its arms were taken by that kingdom.

TURK REFUSES U. S. REQUEST

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey's denial of the American government's request for permission to send the cruiser, North Carolina, through the Dardanelles to Constantinople to bring relief money was before administration officials today. They were informed that the Straits had been mined and that it would be unsafe for a vessel of the size of the North Carolina to attempt the passage. The Turkish Grand Visor also took the stand that it might set up a precedent for the passage of other warships. News of Turkey's stand was transferred by Ambassador Morgenthau who advised the adoption of the Grand Visor's suggestion that the American naval yacht, Scorpion, be sent out into the Mediterranean to meet the gold cruiser.

RUSSIANS REPULSE GERMANS

London, Sept. 4.—The Russian official communication issued on Thursday and carried here in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Petrograd says: "On September 1 the Austrian troops tried to break through the Russian center between Lublin and Kholm, but failed. They were forced to beat a hasty retreat, the Russians capturing one ensign, eight maxims and one ten-pounder. Prisoners taken by us report that the second Austrian army, constituting the covering force to the east of Lemberg is perfectly panic-stricken. In the neighborhood of Lemberg on September 2, twenty more guns were captured by the Russians, making a total of 170. On this front the Russian advance continues uninterruptedly.

TEUTONS STILL CONFIDENT

Berlin, via Wireless to the Associated Press by way of Sayville, L. I., Sept. 4.—Berlin is permanently decked with flags. ## AWNINGS RAISED TO SEVEN FEET

The following article, from the Middletown Journal, will be of particular interest to those who frequently bump their heads on low awnings in this city:

"All awnings in the city must be seven feet in the clear from the sidewalk, according to the city ordinance regulations that have been in enforcement by the police since the passing of the ordinance by the City Commission and which has been necessary to enforce within the past few days because of some of the stores neglecting the raising of the awnings to the stipulated height. The fringes of some had dropped below the seven-foot mark and the owners have all been ordered to get out their rules and fix the awnings to the regulated point. The orders have been observed quite faithfully by the business houses and stores but recently some have allowed the awnings to get below the limit and have been notified by the police to watch them."

The open season for killing wild duck, wild geese, brant or other water fowl, which was ushered in September 1st, and closes December 15th, has caused little stir among the nimrods of the county, owing to the few wild fowl in this county at the present time.

LYMAN H. HOWE PICTURES WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 7TH.

Swifter than travel by rail or any other means of locomotion, Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival which comes to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, for a week, opening Sunday evening, September 6th, and playing daily matinees, covers such immense distances in a couple of hours that it would cost a fortune to traverse the same itinerary in person. Because of the amazing realism and perfect photographic quality, as well as the diversified and exclusive subject matter, his exhibition has created a distinct position for itself that is not approached by any other. The most graphic writer could not impress readers like the stirring scenes which Howe presents. The realism of each scene is intensified by the staff of versatile imitators and impersonators behind the screen who mimic very cleverly everything that flies in the air or walks on the earth. Then again those illusions are enhanced and perfected by the classic and semi-classic musical accompaniments which are as varied in theme as the scenes, each theme being precisely the most appropriate for every scene. The music ranges from a soothing lullaby one instant to the sonorous strains of a famous opera and includes every style or gradation from the old-time melodies to the very latest popular refrain.

The new program has its intense moments such as are imparted by a ride on a runaway train, which in itself is exciting enough, but the thrills are intensified and made more thrilling by means of those realistic "effects" which always distinguish Howe's from all others. Then also there are some spectacular moments experienced during a trip down into the crater of Vesuvius—to the very edge of the vast cauldron of boiling lava.

Some of the mysteries of nature's handiwork are revealed in a series showing the growth of plants and the development of flowers from bud to blossom. Real travel experiences are provided by a trip to ever enchanting Venice during which Howe travelers will glide up and down the canals and see the quaint city under the wizardry of superb color effects at sunset and by moonlight. A railroad ride through Greece, bird studies in the colors of nature, and entirely new animated cartoons are some of the other features.

FRENCH PLAN TO SURRENDER PARIS BEFORE PERMITTING DESTRUCTION

Nearly 100,000 Russians Said to Have Landed on French Soil to Aid French and British Allies—Colossal Struggle Rages Without Moment's Interruption and Loss of Life is Staggering.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, SEPT. 4.—LATE NEWS DISPATCHES FROM DIEPPE DESCRIBE THE GERMAN RIGHT AS AT THE REAR OF THE RETREATING FRENCH THROUGH CREIL AND SENLIS, TOWNS DISTANT 24 AND 20 MILES RESPECTIVELY FROM THE BOUNDARIES OF PARIS PROPER. THE FORTIFICATIONS OF THE FRENCH CAPITAL EXTEND, ROUGHLY, 10 MILES BEYOND THE CITY LIMITS. THE ALLIED ARMIES PROBABLY NOW OCCUPY A LINE OF SIEGE BOTH TO THE EAST AND WEST OF PARIS. RECRUITING HAS IMPROVED IN ENGLAND AND THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES ARE NOW PREPARED TO FORM SOME TEN OR TWELVE NEW DIVISIONS.

LONDON, SEPT. 4.—IN A DISPATCH FROM ROUEN, FRANCE, A CORRESPONDENT OF THE CHRONICLE SAYS HE HAS LEARNED THAT THE FRENCH AUTHORITIES IN PARIS ARE CONSIDERING THE SURRENDER OF THE CITY TO THE GERMANS IN ORDER TO AVOID THE DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY FROM ARTILLERY FIRE.

THIS WILL ONLY BE DONE, THE CORRESPONDENT DECLARES, IN CASE THE OUTSIDE LINES OF THE DEFENSES OF PARIS ARE PASSED BY THE INVADERS.

BRITISH, FRENCH AND BELGIAN WOUNDED ARE BEING TRANSFERRED FROM PARIS TO OTHER CITIES AND THE GREAT EXODUS OF THE POPULACE OF THE FRENCH CAPITAL TO THE SOUTH CONTINUES.

London, Sept. 4.—The armies of Germany, Russia, Austria, France and Great Britain are still at death grips in four colossal battles. A few brief bulletins convey all the important facts that the people of Europe know about the war, yet the interest in their armies so overshadow all individual affairs that they wait with patience for information.

English newspapers, in the lack of definite news of battle, are filled with stories about wounded soldiers who saw some scrap of the great conflict, and with reports from correspondents far behind the firing lines.

The election of Pope Benedict XV at Rome obtains a few lines on the inner page of the London papers while an interview from Paris of a wounded British officer, who said the Allies during the past 24 hours had pressed back the German attack, is read with eager interest. The past 24 hours has yielded no definite news of the battle in the north of France. The public is prepared to learn that the German advance continues to the outer lines of the defense of Paris. There it is expected that the Allied army will make a stand on the line from Verdun on the east to the sea and attempt with all their might to stave the German avalanche.

80,000 RUSSIANS LAND IN FRANCE

London, Sept. 4.—Reports reached London from Liverpool that England has placed more than 80,000 Russian troops in France by means of transports sent north of the Scandinavian peninsula to Finland, where the Cossacks embarked and were safely landed at French ports. Because of the mines in the Baltic and North Seas and the presence of the German fleet it has been regarded as impossible for Russia to reach France except by marching through Germany.

BALTIMORE READY FOR CENTENNIAL OF WRITING OF "THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER"

National interest centers in the great centennial anniversary of the writing of America's most popular anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner," to be held at Baltimore, Sept. 6-13, inclusive. It is expected thousands will visit that city for the event. President Wilson was invited, but may not attend because he is in mourning for his wife. The original American flag that flew over Fort Mifflin in 1814 during the war with England and that inspired Francis Scott Key to write the verses for the song will be brought from the National museum at Washington and displayed.

ORIGINAL OF "STAR SPANGLED BANNER" AND MONUMENT OF FRANCIS SCOTT KEY

from Liverpool ever since the declaration of war, but there had been no observation of ships northward-bound and the rumor that England has helped Russians into France has given rise to much speculation as to where the ships sailed from. However, the secrecy which surrounded the movement of the expeditionary army was so complete that the public is willing to believe the English government has it within its power to conceal any movement.

STEADY ADVANCE CONTINUES

London, Sept. 4.—The correspondent of the Times at Dieppe, under Thursday's date, indicates that the Germans are less than 25 miles from Paris.

He says: "All day yesterday the head of the wedge which now forms the German right was forcing its way to Paris battling the rear of the retreating French through Creil, and Senlis. The cannonading broke windows in Chantilly, which is only 17 miles north of Paris. The Germans are also near Soissons.

Another dispatch to the Times from Beauvais, 40 miles northwest of Paris says the Germans entered Clermont, 35 miles from Paris, at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning.

GERMANS CHECKED AT VERDUN

Paris, Sept. 4.—An official statement given out today says: "The Germans have been checked at Verdun. The French are successful in Lorraine and the Vosges. The situation has not changed."

GHENT CITIZENS IN PANIC

London, Sept. 4.—A dispatch to the Chronicle from Ghent says that the people there are in a panic over the expected advance of the Germans on their city which is indicated by the persistent presence of aeroplanes and scouts in its vicinity. It is believed that the Germans are now at Termonde, sixteen miles east of Ghent.

FOOD PRICE BOOSTERS INDICTED

By Associated Press.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Thirty-two indictments were returned here today by a Federal Grand Jury after an investigation to determine whether food prices have been artificially increased here on pretext of having been caused by the European war.

Bench warrants were issued for all the indicted men, who are local commission merchants or produce dealers, and bail was arranged for their appearance in court. No nationally known concerns were indicted. The indictment charges that they have been fixing prices every day on foodstuffs by "ballots", or "suggestions", or verbal agreements and that the fixed prices have been circulated by printed circulars. The indictments are under the Sherman law and conviction carries a fine of $5000, or one year's imprisonment, or both.

WHEAT $1.29

By Associated Press.

Chicago, Sept. 4.—Yesterday's record price for wheat, $1.25 1/4, was displaced in the opening trades today when the May option sold for $1.26 3/4. Before the session was an hour old the market had scored a sensational jump of more than 4 cents a bushel compared with last night. The bulge carried May wheat up to $1.29 1/4.

WILSON ASKS TAX TO RAISE $100,000,000

President Addresses Congress and Points Out Why Special Tax is Necessary to Insure Continued Prosperity — Leaves Methods to Congress.

By Associated Press.

Washington, September 4.—Following is the full text of President Wilson's address to Congress, assembled in joint session, on the need of emergency revenue legislation delivered this afternoon:

"Gentlemen of the Congress: I come to you today to discharge a duty which I wish with all my heart I might have been spared; but it is a duty which is very clear, and, therefore, I perform it without hesitation or apology. I come to ask very earnestly that additional revenue be provided for the government.

"During the month of August there was, as compared with the corresponding month of last year, a falling off of $10,629,538 in the revenues collected from customs. A continuation of this decrease in the same proportion throughout the current fiscal year would probably mean a loss of customs revenues of from sixty to one hundred million. I need not tell you to what this falling-off is due. It is due, in chief part, not to the reductions recently made in the customs duties, but to the great decrease in imports; and that is due to the extraordinary extent of the industrial area affected by the present war in Europe. Conditions have arisen which no man foresaw; they affect the whole world of commerce and economic production; and they must be faced and dealt with.

"It would be very unwise to postpone dealing with them. Delay in such a matter and in the particular circumstances in which we now find ourselves as a nation might involve consequences of the most embarrassing and deplorable sort, for which I, for one, would not care to be responsible. It would be very dangerous in the present circumstances to create a moment's doubt as to the strength and sufficiency of the treasury of the United States, its ability to assist, to steady and sustain the financial operations of the country's business. If the treasury is known, or even thought to be weak, where will be our peace of mind? The whole industrial activity of the country would be chilled and demoralized. Just now the peculiarly difficult financial problems of the moment are being successfully dealt with, with great self-possession and good sense and very sound judgment; but they are only in process of being worked out. If the process of solution is to be completed, no one must be given reason to doubt the solidity and adequacy of the treasury of the government which stands behind the whole method by which our difficulties are being met

Three Million Men Under Arms to Defend the French Capital and New
Intrenchments Are Being Constructed
Under Direction of the Military
Governor of the City—German
Position Admitted One of Undoubted
Strength.

London, Sept. 4.—La Fere, one of France's fortifications northeast of Paris, has been captured by the Germans after a bloody combat. The allies have been compelled to abandon
all the valley of the Somme.

Belgian troops began a spirited attack on the Germans in a new battle
near Malines in an effort to sever
the German lines of communication.
The attack is believed to have been made by a large force sent from Antwerp.

Amiens, capital of the French department of the Somme, a city of 30,000, was surrendered to the Germans without defense. The success of the Germans in a battle at Moreuil
made the capture of Amiens a certainty.

Boulogne has been abandoned, thus
becoming an open city for occupancy
by the German forces whenever they see St. Boulogne is 35 miles across the straits of Dover from Folkestone,

England.

All of northern France, from Dieppe
on the English channel to Montmedy
on the Belgian, is said to be under
control of the Germans.

New intrenchments outside the city of Paris were begun on a vast scale. Several hundred thousand men are engaged in the work, which
will require several days for completion. French army engineers are directing the construction of the new
defenses.

Martial law was proclaimed in Paris and the city was declared to be in a state of siege.

The German position, with the turning movement now on Montmedy in
the department of the Meuse for a
pivot, and controlling the rich country of Belgium and northern France,
has undoubted strength.

What disposition has been made of
the eighteen army corps of French re-
servists, which have not been sent to
fill in the holes in the allies' left
wing, may have an important effect
on the immediate fortunes of the conflict. It is believed these troops are either held for flank movements or
already are engaged in an unreported
attack upon which the allies are
building hopes of breaking the back
of the German line of invasion.

Three million Frenchmen, it is
said, are now under arms to defend Paris, and new intrenchments are being constructed under the direction
of General Gallieni, the military governor of Paris. In his proclamation
he says that the members of the government have left Paris in order to give a new impetus to the defense of the nation. Only two gates in Paris
are open, Porte Maillot, on the northwest, and Porte de Barbey on the southwest. They are both strongly
guarded and defended by barricades.
One of the German aeroplanes of
the Taub type which recently dropped
bombs on the city of Paris has been brought down. The two German aviators on board were killed.

GERMANY STILL
COAXING ITALY

Rome, Sept. 4.—Germany is continuing her persuasions to endeavor
to induce Italy to support her two companions, Germany and Austria, in
the triple alliance. It can not be learned whether or not these efforts
have met with any success. There
are reports, however, that Italy is concentrating troops on the Austrian
frontier, but this report can not be confirmed. Two prominent German Socialists, including Deputy Suedekum, came here to persuade their Italian comrades that they were right
in supporting Germany in the present
war.

WILSON BEFORE CONGRESS

Asks For War Tax Measure That
Will Raise $100,000,000.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Congress met
in joint session this afternoon to hear
President Wilson read his message
asking for a war tax revenue measure
that will provide $100,000,000. The president confined his message to the presentation of the necessity for
emergency revenues, without suggesting the means for raising the funds.

Representative Underwood, chairman of the ways and means committee, will frame the revenue bill. Mr.
Underwood said his plan was calculated to produce $100,000,000 by an
"internal revenue tax on a very few commodities." Details of the scheme
have been carefully guarded, as congressmen have been flooded with protests for many days. Administration
leaders desire to have the method of
taxation clearly determined before it
is made known, in order to avoid interference from various interests to
be affected.

It may be stated upon authority
that unless there is a change of program the revenue bill will deal only
with internal taxation. There will be no increase in the rates of the income tax. Nor will a duty be levied
on tea or coffee or any other imports.
It is the opinion of the leaders that
stamp taxes, collected by the commissioner of internal revenue will be
more responsive to the needs of the government.

SULTAN BARS U.S. CRUISER

American Cruiser With Relief Fund
Can Not Pass Through.

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey has declined to grant the request of the United States for permission to send
the cruiser North Carolina through
the Dardanelles to Constantinople to
deliver $150,000 in gold deposited
here for the relief of Americans in
the Ottoman empire.

The grand vizier has informed the American government that the waters
of the Dardanelles had been mined
and that it would be unsafe for a
vessel as large as the North Carolina
to go through the straits. He declared also that it might establish a
precedent for the passage of other
foreign warships and suggested that
the American naval yacht Scorpion,
on duty constantly in Turkish waters
along with other light vessels that
serve foreign missions, be sent to sea
to meet the North Carolina.

This was the substance of a long
cablegram received at the White House and state department from Ambassador Morgenthau, the first
message from him in several days.
He made no mention of any declarations of war, but referred to the diplomatic situation as highly critical.

The ambassador reported that all
Americans who wished to leave had
done so, and he thought funds aboard
the North Carolina would be sufficient
for immediate needs.

In view of the delicate situation the American ambassador suggested that
the plan of sending the Scorpion to meet the North Carolina outside the
straits be adopted.

War In Europe Cruel And Barbarous, as Inexcusable as It Is Lamentable

By Lieutenant General NELSON A. MILES, U. S. A., Retired

THE world has never seen such a war as this, and probably it never will see another. CIVILIZATION ON THE EASTERN HEMISPHERE IS TO BE SET BACK COUNTLESS YEARS. We shall not live to see it recover to that point of civilization at which the world's progress has been broken off.

THIS IS A WAR WITHOUT REASON, AS INEXCUSABLE AS IT IS LAMENTABLE. IT IS CRUEL AND BARBAROUS, AND THERE WAS NOT THE LEAST VESTIGE OF A FOUNDATION FOR IT. IT COULD HAVE BEEN PREVENTED HAD IT BEEN DESIRABLE ON THE PART OF THOSE WHO STARTED IT TO PREVENT IT.

Twenty millions of the young men of Europe are being forced into military service without reason, into a war in which many thousands of them will be killed. Nearly every family in Europe is to lose one or more of its members, and thousands of families are to be wiped out. These twenty million young men are the best there are in Europe.

THERE HAVE BEEN TIMES WHEN WAR WAS WARRANTED, WHEN WAR WAS THE ONLY SOLUTION, BUT THIS GENERAL WAR IN EUROPE IS WITHOUT THE FAINTEST HOPE OF AN EXCUSE. THE POWERS THAT RULE HAVE BEEN PREPARING FOR WAR WITH ENORMOUS EXPENDITURES THAT HAVE GROUND DOWN THE PEOPLE WITH TAXES UNTIL THEY BLINDLY WELCOME WAR AS A MEANS TO AVOID THEIR TAX BRED POVERTY.

RED DEATH OF WAR

Tragic Fate of Maximilian at the Hands of the Mexicans.

HIS PENALTY FOR FAILURE.

The Atonement of Blood—How It Was Consummated and How the Vengeance of the Victors Was Satisfied—Coolness of the Unfortunate Prince.

No more tragic incident is recorded in history than the execution of Maximilian. Half a century ago a younger brother of the Emperor Francis Joseph was sent to rule Mexico. Together with his wife, he sat upon the frail throne, even then tottering. How he failed is another story, but when he was taken prisoner he prepared himself for death—the red death of war.

In a volume written some years ago Major John N. Edwards pictures graphically the closing hours of the tall, handsome prince who would be king as follows:

The morning broke fair and white in the sky, and at 6:30 o'clock three carriages drew up in front of the main gate of the convent of Capuchins. The bells rang in all the steeples, there were soldiers everywhere, and long lines of glittering steel that rose and fell in yet the soft, sweet hush of the morning.

In the first carriage got Maximilian and Father Soria, a priest. In the second carriage there came Miramon and his priest, in the third Mejia and his. Then the solemn cortege started. All the people were in the street. On the faces of the multitude there were evidences of genuine and unaffected sorrow. Some among the crowd lifted their hats as the victims passed along, some turned away their heads and wept, and some, even among the soldiers and amid the hostile ranks of the Liberals, fell upon their knees and wept.

The place of execution was to be the place of execution. Northwest of the city a mile or more the Hill of the Bells (El Cerro de las Campanas) appeared itself. It was inclosed on three sides by 6,000 soldiers of all arms, leaving the rear or uncovered side resting upon a wall.

It was 7:30 o'clock when the carriages halted at the place of execution. Maximilian was the first to alight. He stepped proudly down, took a handkerchief from his pocket and his hat from his head and beckoned for one of his Mexican servants to approach. The man came.

"Take these," the emperor said. "They are all I have to give." The faithful Indian took them, kissed them, cried over them, fell upon his knees a few moments in prayer to the good God for the good master and adore a hero.

In front of the dead wall three crosses had been firmly embedded in the ground. On each side was a placard bearing the name of the victim to be immolated there. That upon the right was where the emperor was to be shot, that in the center was Miramon, that upon the left for the grim old stoic and fighter Mejia.

Maximilian walked firmly to his place. The three men embraced each other three times. To Mejia he said:

"We will meet in heaven."

Mejia bowed, smiled and laid his hand upon his heart.

To Miramon he said:

"Brave men are respected by sovereigns. Permit me to give you the place of honor."

As he said this he took Miramon gently by the arm and led him to the center cross, embracing him for the last time.

Escobedo was not on the ground. An aid-de-camp, however, brought permission for each of the victims to deliver a farewell address. The emperor spoke briefly. Miramon drew from his pocket a small piece of paper and read.

When Miramon had ceased reading Maximilian placed his hand on his breast, threw up his head and cried in a singularly calm and penetrating voice, "Fire!"

Eighteen muskets were discharged as one musket. Mejia and Miramon died instantly. Four bullets struck the emperor, three in the left and one in the right breast. Three of these bullets passed entirely through his body, coming out high up on the left shoulder; the other remained embedded in the right lung. The emperor fell a little sideways and upon his right side, exclaiming almost gently and sadly:

"Oh, hombre, hombre! Oh, man! Oh, man!"

He was not yet dead. A soldier went up close to him and fired into his stomach. The emperor moved slightly as if still sensible to pain. Another came out of the firing party and, putting the muzzle of his musket up close to his breast, shot him fairly through the heart.

The tragedy was ended. Mexican vengeance was satisfied; the soul of the unfortunate prince was with its God, and until the judgment day the blood of one who was too young and too gentle to die will cry out from the ground even as the blood of Abel.

Poetry For Today

OHIO.

In our Union, big and great,
There's a certain little state
Called Ohio.
Those who've lived there, love it best
And, for that part, all the rest
Love Ohio.

Just why, I cannot tell;
But, you know, we love it well,
Our Ohio.
Maybe, 'cause the sun's so bright,
Maybe 'cause all things go right
In Ohio.

If you're in another state,
(That isn't half, you know, as great)
As Ohio,
Or, no matter where you roam
It is good to get back home
To Ohio.

Don't you want to skip and hop,
When the train comes to a stop
In Ohio?
When you're home, you want to shout
—Bring the neighbors running out—
It's Ohio.

In this state of golden grain,
Days of sunshine, days of rain,
In Ohio.
Here, the flowers bloom the fairest
And their fragrance is the rarest
In Ohio.

But no matter where we go,
We are always sure to know,
That Ohio,
Always has and always will Head the list, and, it's still,
Our Ohio.

New Pope Refers to the Great Conflict In Europe.

Rome, Sept. 4.—Cardinal Della Chiesa, archbishop of Bologna, Italy, who was elected to the papacy and who has assumed the name of Pope Benedict XV., is described as a man of great spiritual vigor and one of the most highly esteemed in the hierarchy. He is about average height, of stocky build and of rather quiet and reserved manner. He was born at Pegli, in the diocese of Genoa, Nov. 21, 1854, and was ordained a priest Dec. 21, 1878. He served in several important offices of the church. He was appointed assistant secretary of state in 1901 and in May of the present year was created a cardinal. The choice fell on a cardinal of Italian birth, as was expected from tradition, and also from the disturbed conditions in Europe, which mitigated against the selection of a pope outside of the Italian hierarchy.

The coronation of the new pope will take place Sept. 6.
Referring to the European war the new pontiff said the great conflict had armed faithful against faithful, priest against priest, while the bishops of each country offered prayers for the success of the army of his own nation. But victory for one side meant slaughter to the other, destruction of children equally dear to the heart of the pontiff.

The conclave of the sacred college had been in session since the evening of Aug. 31. When the name of Cardinal Giacomo Della Chiesa was cried out as having received the prescribed two-thirds vote, there was much excitement among the members of the conclave.

UNSELFISH SAVAGES.

Generosity of the Semisavage Eskimos of Arctic Siberia.

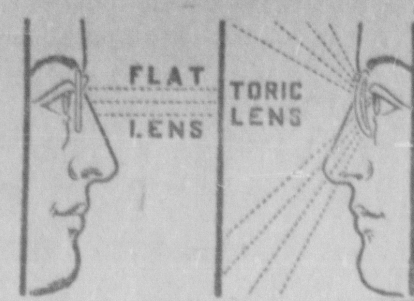

Probably no more clannish—and unselfish—people exist than the natives of the arctic coast of Siberia. The lowest type of semisavage Eskimos. They are ever thinking of one another's welfare, and if one comes into possession of anything of value he never thinks of keeping it for himself, but calls the other members of the tribe to share with him. If a whale is taken or a polar bear, caribou or walrus is killed the meat is divided among all the igloos. Even during the hard winter, when there is a shortage of food, if a seal is brought in by some fortunate hunter the meat and blubber are equally distributed.

Four men from East Cape, the Siberian side of Bering strait, were taken aboard the whale ship Narwhal to make up the boat crews for whaling in the Arctic. All through the summer season they remained aboard the vessel, doing their share of the perilous and wearisome work. When the vessel returned to East Cape on its way south the captain made a pile of flour, sugar, hard bread, calico, tobacco, cartridges, needles and thread, tea, matches—everything dear to the Eskimo heart. It was their wages, and the Eskimos were proud of their wealth.

The walrus hide canoes came alongside, and the four men were taken ashore with their riches. At the water's edge every article was delivered to waiting hands, and when the men who had worked all summer for these necessities and luxuries started for their igloos they carried all they kept for themselves in their hands. They were almost as poor as they were when they started on the cruise, but the village was temporarily happy, and so were they.—Exchange.

Stage Bells.

"Parsifal" is interesting, quite apart from its artistic merit, as having had a musical instrument invented for it and named after it. The reproduction of the sound of church bells in opera was long a difficulty. Real bells simply drowned the orchestra, and all substitutes were tried in vain until Dr. Moti designed the Parsifal bell instrument, somewhat on the principle of the grand piano. Each of its five notes has six strings, which are struck by large hammers covered with cotton wool. And the result is as near to the solemn sound of church bells as the theater has been able to get.—Boston Herald.

FIRE DAMAGES CREAMERY TWO MEN BADLY INJURED

Two Volunteer Firemen, Jas. Devalt and Seaton Bethard, Nearly Meet Death While Fighting Fire Last Night.

BOTH MEN UNCONSCIOUS FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS

Nearly One-Third of Roof Is Burned From Creamery, but Plant Resumes Operation Friday Morning—Loss of More Than $250 Is Fully Covered by Insurance—Fire of Unknown Origin.

During a fire which damaged the Fayette County Creamery Plant, Thursday evening between seven and eight o'clock, two volunteer firemen, James Devalt and Seaton Bethard, were seriously injured when a hose became unmanageable and knocked them from the roof of the creamery building.

The blaze started in the southeast corner of the building, over the coal room, and its origin is a mystery, as the flue is fire-tight, and no sparks could enter the attic where the flames originated.

When the fire department was notified the flames had broken through the roof and were spreading rapidly. The department made a splendid run to the scene and within a very short time had a stream playing on the blaze, but could not get at the source of the fire until two or three holes had been chopped into the building. Then the flames were quickly smothered by the big streams of water.

Devalt and Bethard had climbed to the roof of the building and were playing a stream of water on the blaze when the accident occurred which hurled them from the roof to the ground, 12 or 15 feet below.

Both men were seriously injured by the drop, and both were rendered unconscious and did not fully recover consciousness until nearly two hours later. The men were hastily removed to the Fayette hospital and physicians worked over them, dressing their wounds and administering restoratives until each became fully conscious. Devalt, besides numerous bruises, suffered an ugly gash in the back of his head, and was soon covered with blood. Bethard also suffered many bruises and sprains.

Both men spent a very restless night, but Friday morning were on the road to recovery, although it will probably be several days before they are able to return to their work.

While the men were being removed to the hospital the fire-fighters were busy extinguishing the fire.

Nearly one-third of the roof was destroyed, and other damage resulted which will require an expenditure of $250 or more to replace. The loss is covered by insurance.

The damage to machinery and equipment was very light, and early Friday morning the plant was running as usual, and will continue to do so.

The Creamery during the month of August, churned 23,000 pounds of butter; 20,000 pounds during the month of July and 23,000 pounds during June. The plant has proven a success from the beginning, and much credit is due to Mr. H. L. Spray who has charge of the plant.

The two completed teams will open the season with a game Monday night. The line-ups are as follows:

Team B—J. W. McClung, Walter Patton, R. S. Wolf, P. H. Powers, M. W. Claggen, captain.

Other teams will probably be organized Friday night.

and handled. "The treasury itself could get along for a considerable period, no doubt, without immediate resort to new sources of taxation. But at what cost to the business of the community? Approximately $75,000,000, a large part of the present treasury balance, is now on deposit with national banks distributed throughout the country. It is deposited, of course, on call. I need not point out to you what the probable consequences of inconvenience and distress and confusion would be if the diminishing income of the treasury should make it necessary rapidly to withdraw these deposits. And yet without additional revenue that plainly might become necessary, and the time when it became necessary could not be controlled or determined by the convenience of the business of the country. It would have to be determined by the operations and necessities of the treasury itself. Such risks are not necessary and ought not to be run. We can not too scrupulously or carefully safeguard a financial situation which is at best, while war continues in Europe, difficult and abnormal. Hesitation and delay are the worst forms of bad policy under such conditions.

"And we ought not to borrow. We ought to resort to taxation, however, we may regret the necessity of putting additional temporary burdens on our people. To sell bonds would be to make a most untimely and unjustifiable demand on the money market; untimely, because this is manifestly not the time to withdraw working capital from other uses to pay the government's bills; unjustifiable, because unnecessary. The country is able to pay any just and reasonable taxes without distress. And to every other form of borrowing, whether for long periods or for short, there is the same objection. These are not the circumstances, this is at this particular moment and in this particular exigency not the market, to borrow large sums of money. What we are seeking is to ease and assist every financial transaction, not to add a single additional embarrassment to the situation. The people of this country are both intelligent and profoundly patriotic. They are ready to meet the present conditions in the right way and to support the government with generous self-denial. They know and understand, and will be intolerant only of those who dodge responsibility or are not frank with them.

"The occasion is not of our own making. We had no part in making it. But it is here. It affects us directly and palpably almost as if we

URGES REPAIR OF BAD ROAD

Washington-Leesburg Pike in Bad Condition Although One of the Most Used Roads Leading From the City—Leesburg Citizens Take A Whack at Road Builders.

Regarding the condition of the much-used Washington and Leesburg pike, which has long been in anything but perfect condition between the two towns, the Citizen, of Leesburg says, in part:

"It is conceded on all sides, of whomsoever you ask, who has traveled them, that the roads leading out of Leesburg to Washington C. H., either by way of Buena Vista or by way of the Leesburg-Washington pike are beyond all doubt the worst pikes in either Highland or Fayette.

"It is conceded on all sides that these are among the most traveled, and therefore most important pikes in either county; in fact so exceedingly important and at the same time so exceedingly bad, (and therefore expensive to travel over,) that considerable portion on the Washington C. H. end is now being paved.

"It is conceded on all sides that the present condition of these pikes is inexcusable, and reflects on the business sagacity of all parties concerned—the people who travel them for not demanding more; the farmers along the line for not doing more; the Commissioners of both counties for not granting more.

"And it must be conceded that while primarily to blame, the Commissioners cannot do without the wherewith, without money provisions being made by others than themselves for the repair of these roads. And the money is not in sight; the

The proposed extension of the local traction line to Washington C. H., where it was to form a loop with a line from Xenia has been called off. The New York capitalists, who were to finance the project, were favorably impressed with the project, but when the European war broke out, they saw a better opportunity in financing war loans. It is thought that the project may be taken up again in the future and pushed to a successful completion.—South Charleston.

FLATTERING CONDITION OF Y. M. C. A. SHOWN BY REPORT

Next Sum Above Expenses for Past Month Placed in the Treasury and Trustees Are Greatly Pleased With the Showing—Big Institution Moving Along in Pleasing Manner.

The meeting of the Board of Directors of the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday evening contained several interesting features, the principal one, standing out before all others, being the establishment of proof of the institution's ability to continue its work as a self-supporting organization.

From the comparative report of General Secretary Walter Patton, the more particular item of note is the fact that the Y. M. C. A. in the past two months has been able to put away, after meeting all current liabilities, over $200. Or, to be exact, $200.67.

When the report of the month of July showed the possession of a pretty good balance the directors began to wax hopeful. Last month's repetition would tend to confirm these hopes of future success and prosperity and it is with enthusiastic expectancy that the organization enters upon its new epoch.

Another item of interest presented to the board was the report of the summer school work which shows that the 31 students, 18 boys and 13 girls, received passing grades to the number of 47 and the Y. M. C. A., as a consequence of the work, netted $63.55, clear of all attendant expense.

In connection with the receipt of this report arose a discussion of the educational work of the institution planned for the coming winter. It was decided that the courses include bookkeeping, stenography and mechanical drawing, and possibly agricultural training and show card writing. The board of directors, however, will have nothing to do with the conduct of this work which will be turned over, wholly, to the educational committee and Secretary Patton.

Another report of interest was made by Mr. Patton, concerning the dormitory. It shows that during the month past 23 regular tenants have occupied rooms in the building besides 30 transients.

HEAVY BLASTING HEARD FOR MILES

Residents of northern Fayette county have been hearing the frequent thunderous roar of heavy explosions to the northwest, and have been at a loss to account for the heavy concussions.

An explanation which seems to be the solution to the puzzle is that the explosions are heavy charges of dynamite or blasting powder, set off in the big stone quarries a few miles out of Springfield, where many car loads of stone are shipped daily to all parts of the state.

FIRE DAMAGES CREAMERY TWO MEN BADLY INJURED

Two Volunteer Firemen, Jas. Devalt and Seaton Bethard, Nearly Meet Death While Fighting Fire Last Night.

BOTH MEN UNCONSCIOUS FOR NEARLY TWO HOURS

Nearly One-Third of Roof Is Burned From Creamery, but Plant Resumes Operation Friday Morning—Loss of More Than $250 Is Fully Covered by Insurance—Fire of Unknown Origin.

During a fire which damaged the Fayette County Creamery Plant, Thursday evening between seven and eight o'clock, two volunteer firemen, James Devalt and Seaton Bethard, were seriously injured when a hose became unmanageable and knocked them from the roof of the creamery building.

The blaze started in the southeast corner of the building, over the coal room, and its origin is a mystery, as the flue is fire-tight, and no sparks could enter the attic where the flames originated.

When the fire department was notified the flames had broken through the roof and were spreading rapidly. The department made a splendid run to the scene and within a very short time had a stream playing on the blaze, but could not get at the source of the fire until two or three holes had been chopped into the building. Then the flames were quickly smothered by the big streams of water.

Devalt and Bethard had climbed to the roof of the building and were playing a stream of water on the blaze when the accident occurred which hurled them from the roof to the ground, 12 or 15 feet below.

Both men were seriously injured by the drop, and both were rendered unconscious and did not fully recover consciousness until nearly two hours later. The men were hastily removed to the Fayette hospital and physicians worked over them, dressing their wounds and administering restoratives until each became fully conscious. Devalt, besides numerous bruises, suffered an ugly gash in the back of his head, and was soon covered with blood. Bethard also suffered many bruises and sprains.

Both men spent a very restless night, but Friday morning were on the road to recovery, although it will probably be several days before they are able to return to their work.

While the men were being removed to the hospital the fire-fighters were busy extinguishing the fire.

Nearly one-third of the roof was destroyed, and other damage resulted which will require an expenditure of $250 or more to replace. The loss is covered by insurance.

The damage to machinery and equipment was very light, and early Friday morning the plant was running as usual, and will continue to do so.

The Creamery during the month of August, churned 23,000 pounds of butter; 20,000 pounds during the month of July and 23,000 pounds during June. The plan has proven a success from the beginning, and much credit is due to Mr. H. L. Spray who has charge of the plant.

PROMINENT SWINE BREEDERS HERE

Messrs. Homer Bayton, of Huntington, Ind.; J. M. West, Cynthiana, O.; R. J. Evans, Chicago; W. P. Penry, Rador, O., and S. E. Motron, of Camden, O., have been guests of Mr. Hugh K. Stewart, this week, to see Mr. Stewart's fine Duroc swine, and particularly to see "Col. S. Jr." the most talked of Duroc hog in the United States today, and an animal for which Mr. Stewart recently refused an offer of $1600.

Mr. Evans is secretary of the American Duroc Hog Association, and Mr. Morton is former president and secretary of the association. Mr. Morton is also the best known breeder of Duroc swine, and bred some of the best swine in the world a few years ago. He still has a large herd.

Mr. Stewart will hold his annual sale of Duroc pigs in this city on Monday, October 5th, and will offer 50 choice pigs to the highest bidder.

TWO VOLLEY BALL TEAMS ARE ORGANIZED

A meeting held at the Y. M. C. A. Thursday evening, resulted in the organization of two volley ball teams, the first of a league which, when completely organized, will consist of six or eight teams under the direction of a commission. These teams will play at different times during the winter, by schedule, and a pennant will be awarded the most successful five at the close of the season.

The two completed teams will open the season with a game Monday night. The line-ups are as follows:

Team A—Walter Ellis, Clarence Baer, Eben Adams, Harry Buchanan, Dr. H. M. Jenkins, captain.

Team B—J. W. McClung, Walter Patton, R. S. Wolf, P. H. Powers, M. W. Claggen, captain.

Other teams will probably be organized Friday night.

and handled.

"The treasury itself could get along for a considerable period, no doubt, without immediate resort to new sources of taxation. But at what cost to the business of the community? Approximately $75,000,000, a large part of the present treasury balance, is now on deposit with national banks distributed throughout the country. It is deposited, of course, on call. I need not point out to you what the probable consequences of inconvenience and distress and confusion would be if the diminishing income of the treasury should make it necessary rapidly to withdraw these deposits. And yet without additional revenue that plainly might become necessary, and the time when it became necessary could not be controlled or determined by the convenience of the business of the country. It would have to be determined by the operations and necessities of the treasury itself. Such risks are not necessary and ought not to be run. We can not too scrupulously or carefully safeguard a financial situation which is at best, while war continues in Europe, difficult and abnormal. Hesitation and delay are the worst forms of bad policy under such conditions.

"And we ought not to borrow. We ought to resort to taxation, however, we may regret the necessity of putting additional temporary burdens on our people. To sell bonds would be to make a most untimely and unjustifiable demand on the money market; untimely, because this is manifestly not the time to withdraw working capital from other uses to pay the government's bills; unjustifiable, because unnecessary. The country is able to pay any just and reasonable taxes without distress. And to every other form of borrowing, whether for long periods or for short, there is the same objection. These are not the circumstances, this is at this particular moment and in this particular exigency not the market, to borrow large sums of money. What we are seeking is to ease and assist every financial transaction, not to add a single additional embarrassment to the situation. The people of this country are both intelligent and profoundly patriotic. They are ready to meet the present conditions in the right way and to support the government with generous self-denial. They know and understand, and will be intolerant only of those who dodge responsibility or are not frank with them.

"The occasion is not of our own making. We had no part in making it. But it is here. It affects us as directly and palpably almost as if we were participants in the circumstances which gave rise to it. We must accept the inevitable with calm judgment and unflinching spirits, like men accustomed to deal with the unexpected, habituated to take care of themselves, masters of their own affairs and their own fortunes. We shall pay the bill, though we did not deliberately incur it.

"In order to meet every demand upon the treasury without delay or peradventure and in order to keep the treasury strong, unquestionably strong, and strong throughout the present anxieties, I respectfully urge that an additional revenue of $100,000,000 be raised through internal taxes devised in your wisdom to meet the emergency. The only suggestion I take the liberty of making is that such sources of revenue be chosen as will begin to yield at once and yield with a certain and constant flow.

AUSTRIANS LOST MANY THOUSANDS

Overwhelmingly Defeated By Russians Near Lemberg.

CONFLICT RAGED SEVEN DAYS

Force of 800,000 Russians Attacked and Vanquished 600,000 Austrians Defending the City of Lemberg—Thousands of Prisoners Taken, Besides a Great Number of Guns and Military Stores—Austrians Retreat.

Petrograd, Sept. 4.—The general staff officially reported that Austria lost 100,000 men killed, wounded or captured in the battle for the defense of Lemberg, in which the Austrians were overwhelmingly defeated by the Russians. The conflict lasted seven days, with 800,000 Russians attacking 600,000 Austrians.

The forts of Lemberg have fallen. The Austrians were completely routed and are fleeing northward, leaving a great number of guns and large quantities of military stores, etc., behind them. Thousands of prisoners were taken. Other Austrian armies have been engaged in northern Galicia, near Lublin.

Duke Nicholas, generalissimo of the Russian forces in the field, telegraphed the czar as follows: "I am happy to gladden your majesty with news of the victory won by the army of General Ruzsky. After seven days of uninterrupted fighting the Austrians are retreating in complete disorder, in some places running away and abandoning their guns, rifles, artillery packs and baggage trains."

Prior to this battle, General Ruzsky's army captured in the course of the seven days, twenty-four guns, a multitude of firearms and a great number of German machine guns. The operations extended over the enormous front of over 200 miles and certainly more than a million and probably a million and a half men were engaged. More than half of the Austrian army, which has been fighting in the southern provinces of Poland and on the left flank, was acting in close co-operation with two German army corps facing Breslau. While the Austrian left was seeking to envelop the Russian forces in Poland and the extreme right was trying to get round Podolia, the main forces were directed at the heart of the Russian position in Poland.

The enveloping movement in the west failed and the Germans were withdrawn from the north to deal with the victorious Russian advance. The center at Lublin hurled itself in vain against Russia's finest battalions, whose task was to keep the enemy from passing at all costs. The Austrians' extreme right sustained enormous losses, but the most terrible blow was dealt them by the army of General Ruzsky, at whom the Austrians hurled four army corps.

The Belgian and Servian ministers accompanied President Poincaré, as representing powers warring with Germany. Ambassador Herriek's decision to remain in Paris has given great pleasure to the French government. The Swiss ambassador remains also.

TORTURE FOR CONVICTS.

The Cruel Methods in Use in Portugal's Mozambique Colony.

Mozambique being one of the principal convict settlements of the Portuguese government, many poor creatures make desperate dashes for liberty only to be devoured by the sharks before the eyes of their guards. It was no uncommon event to hear the fortress gun boom forth, announcing that another poor soul was running this ghastly gantlet of the sharks sooner than exist like a half starved dog in deplorable surroundings.

There being no capital punishment under Portuguese law, many of the convicts were of course of the most desperate type—notorious murderers, and so on. Some of them, after a certain time and as a reward for good conduct were allowed to work on parole, leaving the fortress in the morning and returning at night, plying their various trades to their own advantage. Others of a more dangerous character might be seen working in chains on the road, guarded by slovenly half caste sepoys.

Outside the dungeon cells were whipping posts, over which poor creatures had to kneel, their arms and legs being bound to iron rings, while lashes were administered with a chicotte, a strip of hippo hide. Palmatoria was another torture used. Although illegal to Portuguese law, it is nevertheless still widely used, causing excruciating pain. The implement

The person to be punished extends the palms of his hands, and sharp, regular blows are administered, which at each stroke suck up the flesh. The bravest can rarely stand more than thirty blows, for the tortured hands swell to double their natural size. The sentence is often several hundred blows, the punishment continuing on succeeding days until "justice" is satisfied.—Sibyl Belcher in Wide World Magazine.

ON SUBJECT OF RATE INCREASE

Railroad Heads Will Confer With President Wilson.

TO AIR CARRIERS' CONDITION

Increase of Rates Sought as a Means of Meeting the Heavy Depletion of Revenues Resulting from the Falling Off of Import and Export Traffic Due to the Great European War.

Washington, Sept. 4.—President Wilson will have an important conference next Wednesday with several of the leading railroad presidents of the country. The condition of the carriers which has been brought on by the European war is to be discussed. This conference will mark the beginning of an attempt by the railroads to obtain from the interstate commerce commission authority to increase rates as a means of meeting the heavy depletion of revenues which has resulted from falling off of import and export traffic.

The railroad presidents understand that they are expected to give the president definite information as to the extent to which the railroads' finances have been affected by the war and to discuss plans for readjusting them.

It was noted as significant that the interstate commerce commission has reassembled one month ahead of its scheduled time and that from now on the commission intends to maintain a quorum to meet any situation that may arise. It is said the committee has reassembled in anticipation of the filing of rate increase petitions by the eastern railroads. The commission was scheduled to meet on the first Monday in October, but in view of conditions brought about by the war it was decided that it ought to be in a position to act immediately on any problem that may be brought before it.

The president's action in determining to inform himself fully as to the railroad situation resulted from information which came to him that the road revenues had fallen off heavily in the month of August. The interstate commerce commission shares with the president the belief that the federal authority ought to be entirely willing to listen to the arguments of the roads that they be permitted to adapt themselves to the new transportation conditions which have arisen out of the European war.

MANY FLEE FROM PARIS

Paris, Sept. 4.—The people of Paris regard the transfer of the government to Bordeaux as the wisest measure under the circumstance as, while Paris necessarily is under military administration, it is equally necessary that the government keep in touch with the rest of the country.

The exodus from Paris continues. The desire to save the women and children from the privations and perhaps the horrors of a long siege is growing in intensity every hour. All the terminals for the west and south of France present extraordinary scenes.

In the meantime, those who have to remain in the city are laying in a supply of provisions.

Lloyds bank (English) has cleared its premises and has placed its affairs in the hands of its American colleagues, Munroe and Company. Callers at the British consulate were referred to the American consulate, which apparently has taken over the British consular business.

JESS WILLARD, GIANT WHITE HOPE, HAS AMBITION TO MEET JOHNSON

New York, Sept. 4.—Jess Willard, six feet six inches of brawn and muscle, is now under the management of Jack Curley, who announces that he represents a syndicate that will post $10,000 as a forfeit for a fight with Jack Johnson and will guarantee $30,000 to the black champion, win, draw or lose, if he will enter the ring with Willard. It is possible that Curley has formed the syndicate, but there is hardly a possibility that any money will ever be put up, for Johnson is not likely to ever figure again in a championship fight. And if Johnson did fight no one would believe the fight was on the level. His written agreement in the Moran affair, by which Moran was to receive a certain increased share of the receipts if he didn't go eight rounds, published in English and French papers, settled that. Johnson has passed his prime as a fighter. Dissipation and easy living have left him a far less effective fighting machine.
 His endurance has gone, and after boxing a few rounds he loses his strength and hitting power. So it is quite natural to suspect that he might frame up his bouts to make sure of winning or to receive a big piece of money to pay him for losing a valuable title. Willard would probably whip Johnson. Willard is naturally a defensive fighter like Johnson, and he wouldn't run into anything through over eagerness.
 When hurt he hits a terrific punch or two before his natural caution returns. He uses a fast and hard left jab, and he has great advantages in height, reach, weight and strength. Five years ago Willard would have had no chance with Johnson; today it's a different matter, as Johnson is all in.

BRITISH RAILWAY PORTERS.

And the Magic of the Sixpence or Two Shilling as a Tip.

I never had much fault to find with the British porter and sixpence system for baggage. E. S. Martin writes in Scribner's. You have nothing to show for your trunk when you give it up but the British constitution, and that is not written, but you have to take things as you find them, and under the British system we usually found all the things we took, even our umbrellas.

And the British railway porter is a lovely institution. He is the real father of his country. I was in a perfect frame of mind to appreciate his fatherliness. I wanted him to do all the work, including the necessary thinking, and he did it. I loved to have him hustle in and find us proper seats in trains. In that particular of service I am seldom able to realize Jane's reasonable expectations, but the British porter did and I honored him
 for it with admiration and shillings.

And isn't a shilling a dear little talisman? I was so pleased with them.
 They do so much for you and leave you with a cheerful glow and a sense of having parted with a true friend.
 You can get quite a lot of them for $5, and they are the cheapest thing for the money that you can buy in England. Even their fractions are nice;
 very desirable and convenient; companionable while they stay with you and remunerative when they leave. I tried to keep always provided with shillings and their silver fractions, and duly also with pennies, which are issued in England in large folio editions.
 I can remember when our honorable little cents were of a dignified amplitude like that. Did they buy more then, do you suppose? Certainly they were of more relative importance in the scheme of things than cents are now, and I'm not sure but that it would be an operation worth trying on the high cost of living to make them big again.

BUILDING A LIGHTHOUSE.

Rearing the Bell Rock Tower Was a Perilous Piece of Work.

Right down to the time of John Smeaton, who invented the stone tower, lighthouses were built of wood. It was Smeaton's success in placing a stone edifice on the dreaded Eddystone rocks in the eighteenth century which really gave an impetus to lighthouse building, and since then the sea builder has achieved many notable conquests
 in all parts of the globe.
 The next erected was that built by

R. Stevenson on the Ben rock, on the famous Inch cape reef, off the coast of Scotland. The construction of this lighthouse was one long, terrible battle with the angry sea. The securing of the foundations, naturally the most hazardous part of the whole undertaking, proved exceedingly difficult.
 It is recorded that the men worked with desperation. Only two could remain on the rock at a time, but they stuck there with the tenacity of leeches,
 the cold waters of the North sea bearing down every few minutes and sweeping entirely over them. When the first stone was at last swung into position the men, ragged, chilled and worn with the awful struggle, clung to the iron rods which they had erected upon the reef and cheered madly, like soldiers just over the ramparts of an enemy's fort.

Again and again they were absolutely driven from the rock. When the tower began to appear well above the sea terrible storms arose and swamped
 the works. On several occasions blocks weighing as much as two tons were ruthlessly torn out of their places and swept into the sea despite dovetailed joints and portland cement. In the end the sea builder proved victorious, as he always does, but it cost four years' labor and the expenditure of £30,000 before the lighthouse stood complete.—Wide World Magazine.

Kick of the Mule.
 A wise man, in his own estimation, announces that a mule kicks because it doesn't know any better. This will greatly surprise many students of contemporaneous mule life. If ever there was an animal with low cunning expressed in its eye and its twitching nostril, that animal is the mule. Its ability to place a kick where it will give the greatest offense to its victim is something marvelous.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

The Spanish Flag.
 The red and yellow of the Spanish
 flag is said to be derived from this occurrence: In 1378 Charles the Bold dipped his fingers in the blood of Geoffrey, count of Barcelona, and drew them down the count's golden shield in token of his appreciation of the latter's bravery. The shield, so marked, became the arms of Barcelona, which became part of Aragon, and its arms were taken by that kingdom.

TURK REFUSES U. S. REQUEST

Washington, Sept. 4.—Turkey's denial of the American government's request for permission to send the cruiser, North Carolina, through the Dardanelles to Constantinople to bring relief money was before administration officials today. They were informed that the Straits had been mined and that it would be unsafe for a vessel of the size of the North Carolina to attempt the passage. The Turkish Grand Visor also took the stand that it might set up a precedent for the passage of other warships. News of Turkey's stand was transferred by Ambassador Morgenthau who advised the adoption of the Grand Visor's suggestion that the American naval yacht, Scorpion, be sent out into the Mediterranean to meet the gold cruiser.

RUSSIANS REPULSE GERMANS

London, Sept. 4.—The Russian official communication issued on Thursday and carried here in a dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph Co. from Petrograd says: "On September 1 the Austrian troops tried to break through the Russian center between Lublin and Kholm, but failed. They were forced to beat a hasty retreat, the Russians capturing one ensign, eight maxims and one ten-pounder. Prisoners taken by us report that the second Austrian army, constituting the covering force to the east of Lemberg is perfectly panic-stricken. In the neighborhood of Lemberg on September 2, twenty more guns were captured by the Russians, making a total of 170. On this front the Russian advance continues uninterruptedly.

TEUTONS STILL CONFIDENT

Berlin, via Wireless to the Associated Press by way of Sayville, L. I., Sept. 4.—Berlin is permanently decked with flags. Major Morant, the military expert of the Tageblatt, expects that the army of Duke Albrecht and the Crown Prince will soon reach Chalons and Verdun, which can be easily masked without delaying the advance.

AWNINGS RAISED TO SEVEN FEET

The following article, from the Middletown Journal, will be of particular interest to those who frequently bump their heads on low awnings in this city:

"All awnings in the city must be seven feet in the clear from the sidewalk, according to the city ordinance regulations that have been in enforcement by the police since the passing of the ordinance by the City Commission and which has been necessary to enforce within the past few days because of some of the stores neglecting the raising of the awnings to the stipulated height. The fringes of some had dropped below the seven-foot mark and the owners have all been ordered to get out their rules and fix the awnings to the regulated point. The orders have been observed quite faithfully by the business houses and stores but recently some have allowed the awnings to get below the limit and have been notified by the police to watch them."

LITTLE HUNTING IN THIS COUNTY

The open season for killing wild duck, wild geese, brant or other water fowl, which was ushered in September 1st, and closes December 15th, has caused little stir among the nimrods of the county, owing to the few wild fowl in this county at the present time.

Rabbit hunters, as usual, will start out on November 15th, and can hunt until the close of December 4th.

The open season for foxes is from October 2 to January 2; racoon, Nov. 1 to March 1st; muskrat, Jan. 1 to April 1, and skunk—one of the farmer's best friends—Nov. 15th to Feb. 1st.

LYMAN H. HOWE PICTURES WEEK OF SEPTEMBER 7TH.

Swifter than travel by rail or any other means of locomotion, Lyman H. Howe's Travel Festival which comes to the Hartman Theater, Columbus, for a week, opening Sunday evening, September 6th, and playing daily matinees, covers such immense distances in a couple of hours that it would cost a fortune to traverse the same itinerary in person. Because of the amazing realism and perfect photographic quality, as well as the diversified and exclusive subject matter, his exhibition has created a distinct position for itself that is not approached by any other. The most graphic writer could not impress readers like the stirring scenes which Howe presents. The realism of each scene is intensified by the staff of versatile imitators and impersonators behind the screen who mimic very cleverly everything that flies in the air or walks on the earth. Then again those illusions are enhanced and perfected by the classic and semi-classic musical accompaniments which are as varied in theme as the scenes, each theme being precisely the most appropriate for every scene. The music ranges from a soothing lullaby one instant to the sonorous strains of a famous opera and includes every style or gradation from the old-time melodies to the very latest popular refrain.

The new program has its intense moments such as are imparted by a ride on a runaway train, which in itself is exciting enough, but the

Some of the mysteries of nature's handiwork are revealed in a series showing the growth of plants and the development of flowers from bud to blossom. Real travel experiences are provided by a trip to ever enchanting Venice during which Howe travelers will glide up and down the canals and see the quaint city under the wizardry of superb color effects at sunset and by moonlight.
